

I understand that the State of Massachusetts is currently considering its policy regarding biomass energy. As a citizen of the state and a lover of the state's forests, I would like to see a sensible policy enacted that makes use of a renewable local energy resource and creates a market for the state's natural resources, while encouraging responsible management of private forestland.

Thank you very much for considering my opinion in formulating your policy,

Morgan Wilson

21 Cabot St
Waltham, MA